

Vivekacūḍāmaṇi is the cream of the Upaniṣads and the Bhagavad-gītā. It re-educates the student, in a systematic way, to provide him with a new vision of life. The goal and the path are both exhaustively dealt with, in this elaborate treatment of Vedānta, by Ācārya Śaṅkara. To one, who is making a deep study of Vivekacūḍāmaṇi, no other help is needed for leading him to a spiritual life and guiding him to his self-improvement.
